

Courage to Be You

A poem by Simone G

You are so amazing the way you are
With everything you have, with all your scars

Your heart's so soft, so beautiful and kind
The best of everything one day you'll find

With the pain you endure; your silent cries
Your courage, your strength will help you rise

So on the nights that feel so heavy and dark
Look within and find your spark

As you've the potential; your ways so bright for many lost hearts you'll be the light.
